Ridge Presbyterian is a church of people gathered around one thing—Jesus Christ, and his gospel of unlimited grace. As a church, we come from lots of different places: lost, found, burned, cynical, broken, hurting, or some combination of all of these. But what unites us and keeps us coming back together week after week is the reality of a Savior who has given unimaginable hope to any who admit their need and sprawl out before Him. This Jesus is really all we have to offer at RPC. We are convinced that not only is He enough, but that HE alone is true wisdom, life, and fullness of joy.

If you are new or newish here, we are so glad that you have joined us! We would love to know more about you, as well as give you the chance to learn a bit more about us. Use the QR code to the right to access our welcome card and let us know you were here.

Call to Worship - Luke 24.36-41

“As they were talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, ‘Peace to you!’ But they were startled and frightened and thought they saw a spirit. And he said to them, ‘Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.’ And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, ‘Have you anything here to eat?’”

Confession of Faith - Wstmnstr Lgr Catechism, Q&A #52 [Adapted]

Q: How was Christ exalted in His resurrection?

A: Christ was exalted in His resurrection, in that, not having seen decay in death—in which it was impossible for Him to be held—and having the very same body in which He suffered, but without mortality and other infirmities, He rose again from the dead on the third day. By His own power, ...

God calls His people into worship, not the other way around. His Word is the only thing that can truly draw our hearts into worship in Spirit and Truth. And so, we begin here.

The Bible tells us to let the Word of Christ dwell within us richly by “singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.” Thus, an essential element of public worship is to sing of what God has done, and about our delight in Him.

Tithes and Offerings are part of our worship and response to the gospel. When we grasp that “He who was rich, for our sake became poor” it stirs us to reflect that generosity in our giving.

Creeeds give us a chance to proclaim what we believe while also acknowledging that we are part of something bigger than this local church. We join our voice to Christians around the globe and throughout history who have confessed these same creeds.

... He thereby declared Himself to be the Son of God, to have satisfied divine justice, to have vanquished death and him who had the power of it, and is now enthroned as the Lord of the living and of the dead. All this He did as a representative person, the head of His church, for their justification, making them alive in grace, supporting them against enemies, and assuring them of their resurrection from the dead at the last day. Amen.

Benediction—Numbers 6.24-26

“The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.”

It is a great joy and privilege to be able to disciple our children from an early age in the things of God, and to raise them up in the family of Christ! We believe that discipleship of our kids happens at home throughout the week and also in tiny moments like this at church! Holy Spirit, do your gracious work!

Since we have peace with God through the work of Jesus, we gladly extend peace to one another and welcome each other as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Because God has spoken to us through His Word we strive to proclaim what it says and teach what it means. It is through this Ministry of the Word that the Church receives training, correction, encouragement, and deeper experience of the gospel of Jesus.

Followers of Jesus are invited to His table where He spiritually feeds His people. Though these elements are common bread and wine, they symbolize His body and blood and “preach” to our senses that Christ abides in us and we abide in Him.

God gets the final word in the worship service. And with it He chooses to bless His people. That is what the word benediction means: “blessing.” Go in the peace of His blessing!

Power To Redeem

You take what is and You make it beautiful
When love floods in we're restored forevermore

With breath that brings the dead to life
With words that pierce the dark with light
Only by the blood are we set free
With mercy strong to carry shame
And nail it to a tree
You alone hold the power to redeem

No guilt competes with innocence crucified
No grave can hold what Your grace has justified

(So) Rejoice O child of God
(Oh) Lift your eyes to see
With ev'ry morning light
(Oh) Again we are redeemed

Oh You alone hold the power to redeem
Oh You alone hold the power to redeem

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light my strength my song
This Cornerstone this solid Ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love what depths of peace
When fears are stilled when strivings cease
My Comforter my All in All
Here in the love of Christ I stand

In Christ alone who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless babe
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save
Till on that cross as Jesus died
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin on Him was laid
Here in the death of Christ I live

There in the ground His body lay
Light of the world by darkness slain
Then bursting forth in glorious Day
Up from the grave He rose again
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ

No guilt in life no fear in death
This is the power of Christ in me
From life's first cry to final breath
Jesus commands my destiny
No power of hell no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His hand
Till He returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand

Crown Him With Many Crowns

Crown Him with many crowns
The Lamb upon His throne
Hark how the heav'nly anthem drowns
All music but its own
Awake my soul and sing
Of Him who died for thee
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Thro' all eternity

Crown Him the Lord of love
Behold His hands and side
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified
All hail Redeemer hail
For Thou hast died for me
Thy praise and glory shall not fail
Thro'out eternity

Crown Him the Lord of life
Who triumphed o'er the grave
Who rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save
His glories now we sing
Who died and rose on high
Who died eternal life to bring
And lives that death may die

Crown Him the Lord of heav'n
One with the Father known
One with the Spirit thro' Him giv'n
From yonder glorious throne
To Thee be endless praise
For Thou for us hast died
Be Thou O Lord thro' endless days
Adored and magnified

Forever (We Sing Hallelujah)

The moon and stars they wept
The morning sun was dead
The Savior of the world was fallen
His body on the cross
His blood poured out for us
The weight of every curse upon Him

One final breath He gave
As heaven looked away
The Son of God was laid in darkness
A battle in the grave
The war on death was waged
The power of hell forever broken

The ground began to shake
The stone was rolled away
His (perfect) (reckless) love could not be overcome
Now death where is your sting
Our resurrected King has rendered you defeated

Now forever He is glorified
Forever He is lifted high
And forever He is risen
He is alive and He is alive

We sing hallelujah we sing hallelujah
We sing hallelujah the Lamb has overcome

We sing hallelujah we sing hallelujah
We sing hallelujah

And now death where is your sting
Our resurrected King has overcome
He's overcome oh

Our God and Our King

Our God is the author the first and the last
His works they resound through generations past
From creation, to the Savior, to the world we now see

Our God is the healer who will never change
Defender of the weak and a shield for the saved
And He binds up the broken and raises the dead

Our God will forever and ever be praised
One million days our lips sing His name
And when we have finished will start in again

Hallelujah, we exalt You
Hallelujah, we exalt You

His love we will never be separated from
Neither angel or demon or nothing above
Neither principalities or a government of man

His word it goes forth unhindered, untamed
He calls out the sons and daughters by name
And on White stone a new name will be writ
To recall the grace shown and to never forget

When Jesus returns on a white horse He rides
His eyes are ablaze with the justice to rise Faithful and True are what He is called
To His word, like a sword, all the nations will fall

So praise Him, oh praise Him, let all the saints rise
And claim the redemption for which He was crucified
Chimes of freedom eternal will ring
For He'll reign supreme our God and Our King
